THE TOMBS BARBER

NEW YORK.— Special.— The temperamental gentlemen rusticating in the Tombs sent a letter of complaint on Thursday to Commissioner of Corrections Whitney, protesting against the barber, the poor restaurant service and the man who sells them papers, if a copy of the letter received by the World is a true copy.

Of the barber they say that lack or competition has made him an autocrat. They declare he charges ten cents for a shave "once over." won't wash an inmate's face for less than an additional nickel; gives a clean shave for a quarter; charges five cents more for combing the hair, and tacks on an extra charge of a nickel for executing that luxury of the very wealthy—the celebrated neck shave.

COUNTERFEIT BILL BAFFLED EXPERTS

WASHINGTON, D. C .- Special-WASHINGTON, D. C.— Special.—
Alarm seized the officers of the United States Treasury Monday upon the discovery of a remarkable counterfeit $5 silver certificate, the most dangerous imitation of American currency since the famous "Monroe head" $100 bill was suppressed in 1898.

So nearly perfect is this spurious note that officers of the oash room of the Treasury declared it was genuine and unswervingly held to their belief that it was a washed note. Herman Moran, Assistant Chief of the United States Secret Service detected United States Secret Service, detected slight variations from the original, however, and stamped it unqualifiedly as a counterfeit.

In the case of the "Monroe head" bill the whole issue was withdrawn from circulation because of the dangerous imitation. It will hardly be practicable to resort to this precaution in connection with the new counterfet because the things head. terfeit because the $5 "Indian head silver certificate is so generally in cir culation. The counterfelt was discovered in New York city.

Widespread warnings to the public were issued today. "The general appearance of this counterfeit," says the notice, "is calculated to deceive even careful handlers of money."

Morton had been placed under arrest by Detectives Wiley and Kellam, wanted in Washington, D. C., it is understood, for the theft of $6,000 from a bank where he was employed as runner. The assault occurred at St. Feter and Baker Streets.

Officer Wiley was hit a staggering blow in the face and was knocked to the pavement. Morton took to his heels, followed by six shots from Detective Kellam's revolver and four from the weapon of Detective Wiley, when that worthy managed to struggle to his feet. None of the shots are believed to have hit the fugitive.

FATAL PLUNGE ENDS

ON IMMIGRATION TEMPESTUOUS SESSION.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Special.—The House and Senate conferees on the immigration bill got down to work Friday, and it was predicted that they would reach an agreement in the course of a few days which would be accepted by both houses and enable the President to affix his signature to the measure, so that vigorous restriction of immigration will begin before March 1st.

The bill received.—The history of the State met at noon Friday in special session, called by Governor Glasscock.

The Senate is composed of fifteen Republicans and fifteen Democrats, and a deadlock on organization is certain.

The real fireworks of the session will be the election of a United States senator, who will be a Republican, to succeed Senator Clarence W. Watson.
